Dear Nili,

Everything is confirmed for 8.00, Monday 9th of February.
Stefen and his sister, Monika Schoeller, will meet you in the lobby of Mishkenot Guest House in Yemin Moshe.
Monika is a bit older, shy, brilliant and the Publisher of Fischer Verlag in Germany – part of their publishing empire.
Stefan is nearing 60, one of the kindest, most principled people I know. He will be the tallest person in the lobby.

There is one change of plan: it will only be the four of you meeting. I was concerned about the number of people attending this meeting, knowing that Stefan is not one for small talk.
He wants a more intimate meeting where you can all speak openly about larger matters. I am really supportive of this change.

I will let Ned, Flip and Tim know of this update. They will be disappointed but it is a better way to arrange this meeting.

If you want to speak before the meeting – just let me know.

Leila tov,

Deborah
